Haunted House Tours

If you know someone who might be interested in volunteering bring them along. We are always looking for volunteers.

CARNEVIL!

On Sunday, Sept. 28, at the Annual Boo Crew Barbecue the Bellevue Avenue Haunted House 2014 Scare was unveiled to be "Carnevil"! The Haunted House will feature several Freak Show Acts along with many clowns and carnival themed scares. Our parade entry will mimic the Haunted House theme this year with a Big Top float! We will also be handing out popcorn balls as opposed to candy during the parade.

In addition to unveiling the 2014 theme, several awards were presented to Boo Crew members who have really made a difference over the past 11 years the Haunted House has been in existence. Those members included: Leo & Arlene Lamoureux for the use of their flatbed truck in last year's parade; Dee Lamoureux for her willingness to help decorate and her boundless energy; Laurie Abatiell for continuing to help despite the absence of her son who is away at college; Kaylah Weeks for her advertising of the Haunted House and awesome enthusiasm; and Dillon Trombley for cooking at the barbecues, helping to unveil the new scares, convincing friends to volunteer over the years and dedicated participation in both the parade and haunted house year after year. Thank you to the award winners and all the volunteers that make up the Boo Crew. We couldn't do it without you.

Boo Crew T-shirts

We are making an additional 8 Boo Crew T-shirts that will be ready by Oct. 18 for the work party. If you already have a t-shirt please wear it to the work party for the Boo Crew photo. We would also appreciate it if you would wear the Boo Crew T-shirt and dark pants under your costumes for both the parade and haunted house. Thanks!
